A trek laden with Himalayan glaciers, wooden bridges and dense forests leads you to the foothills of the Himalayan Mountain Ranges. Nestled among the serene heights of the great Himalayas are Two major pilgrim-destinations namely Kedarnath and Badrinath, collectively known as Do Dham. Both of these two sites are devoted to a specific deity. Kedarnath is dedicated to Lord Shiva. It is the northernmost Jyotirlinga and is close to the source of the holy River Mandakini. Badrinath is dedicated to Lord Vishnu. It is situated on the bank of the River Alaknanda.

Ghangaria, is the last inhabitant village, one encounters on the Valley of Flowers Trek

Valley of Flowers – Adventure nature lovers visit beautiful valley of flowers which offers abundant natural beauty in the form of waterfalls, verdant hills covered with Pine & Oak trees, gushing rivulets extremes and myriad flowers.

Hemkund Sahib is one of the most revered Sikh Shrines in Uttarakhand and thousands of pilgrims visit every year
